Amendments to Auditing Standards

Amendments to ASA 200

8. Paragraph 13(f) is amended to read as follows:

~~[Deleted by the AUASB. Refer Aus 13.2]~~

9. Paragraph Aus 13.2 is renamed as paragraph 13(f), and amended to read as follows:

Financial statements means a structured representation of historical financial information, including ~~related notes disclosures~~, intended to communicate an entity's economic resources or obligations at a point in time or the changes therein for a period of time in accordance with a financial reporting framework. The term "financial statements" ordinarily refers to a complete set of financial statements as determined by the requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework, but can also refer to a single financial statement. Disclosures comprise explanatory or descriptive information, set out as required, expressly permitted or otherwise allowed by the applicable financial reporting framework, on the face of a financial statement, or in the notes, or incorporated therein by cross-reference. (Ref: Para. A1–A2)

10. As a result of the change made in paragraph 9 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent "Aus" paragraph references within paragraph 13 of the Auditing Standard are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

11. Paragraph Aus 13.4 is deleted and added to paragraph Aus 13.2 and is amended to read as follows:

Financial Report means, for purposes other than the Corporations Act 2001, a complete set of financial statements, ~~including the related notes disclosures~~, and an assertion statement by those responsible for the financial report. ~~The related notes ordinarily comprise a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. The requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework determine the presentation, structure form and content of the financial report, and what constitutes a financial report.~~

12. A new heading titled "Definitions" is inserted under the existing title "Application and Other Explanatory Material."

13. A new sub-heading, titled "Financial statements (Ref: Para. 13(f))" is inserted under the new "Definitions" heading referred to in paragraph 12 of this Auditing Standard.

14. Paragraph Aus 22.1 is deleted as follows:

~~Application of the requirement(s) would relate to classes of transactions, account balances or disclosures that the auditor has determined are immaterial.~~

15. New paragraph A1 is inserted after the sub-heading referred to in paragraph 13 of this Auditing Standard as follows:

Some financial reporting frameworks may refer to an entity's economic resources or obligations in other terms. For example, these may be referred to as the entity's assets and liabilities, and the residual difference between them may be referred to as equity or equity interests.

16. As a result of the change made in paragraph 15 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

17. New paragraph A2 is inserted after new paragraph A1 as follows:

Explanatory or descriptive information required to be included in the financial statements by the applicable financial reporting framework may be incorporated therein by cross-reference to information in another document, such as a management report or a risk report. “Incorporated therein by cross-reference” means cross-referenced from the financial statements to the other document, but not from the other document to the financial statements. Where the applicable financial reporting framework does not expressly prohibit the cross-referencing of where explanatory or descriptive information may be found, and the information has been appropriately cross-referenced, the information will form part of the financial statements.

18. As a result of the change made in paragraph 17 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

Amendments to ASA 210

19. Paragraph A11 is amended to read as follows:

However, the concept of an independent audit requires that the auditor’s role does not involve taking responsibility for the preparation of the financial report or for the entity’s related internal control, and that the auditor has a reasonable expectation of obtaining the information necessary for the audit (including information obtained from outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers) in so far as management is able to provide or procure it.

20. Paragraph A24 is amended to read as follows:

... In addition to including the matters required by paragraph 10, an audit engagement letter may make reference to, for example:

- The requirement for the auditor to communicate key audit matters in the auditor’s report in accordance with ASA 701.¹
- The expectation that management will provide written representations (see also paragraph A13).
- The expectation that management will provide access to all information of which management is aware that is relevant to the preparation of the financial report, including an expectation that management will provide access to information relevant to disclosures.
- The agreement of management to make available to the auditor the draft financial report and any other accompanying other information, including all information relevant to their preparation, whether obtained from within or outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers (including all information relevant to the preparation of disclosures), and the other information, if any, in time to allow the auditor to complete the audit in accordance with the proposed timetable.

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

62. New paragraph A22 is inserted after paragraph A21 as follows:

As part of the discussion among the engagement team required by paragraph 10, consideration of the disclosure requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework assists in identifying early in the audit where there may be risks of material misstatement in relation to disclosures. Examples of matters the engagement team may discuss include:

- Changes in financial reporting requirements that may result in significant new or revised disclosures;
- Changes in the entity's environment, financial condition or activities that may result in significant new or revised disclosures, for example, a significant business combination in the period under audit;
- Disclosures for which obtaining sufficient appropriate audit evidence may have been difficult in the past; and
- Disclosures about complex matters, including those involving significant management judgement as to what information to disclose.

63. As a result of the change made in paragraph 62 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

64. Paragraph Aus A31.1 is deleted.

65. Paragraph A27 is amended to read as follows:

...

- Accounting principles and industry-specific practices.
- Regulatory framework for a regulated industry, including requirements for disclosures.

66. Paragraph A31 is amended to read as follows:

...

- ... Such issues may include whether goodwill, joint ventures, investments, or special-purpose entities are accounted for appropriately and whether adequate disclosure of such issues in the financial report have been made.
- The ownership, and relationships between owners and other people or entities. This understanding assists the auditor in determining whether related party transactions have been appropriately identified, and accounted for, appropriately and adequately disclosed in the financial report. ...

67. Paragraph A32 is amended to read as follows:

- Financial reporting practices such as:
 - Accounting principles and industry-specific practices, including for industry-specific significant ~~categories~~ classes of transactions, account balances and related disclosures in the financial report (for example, loans and investments for banks, or research and development for pharmaceuticals).
 - Revenue recognition ~~practices~~.

68. Paragraph A81 is amended to read as follows:

...

- The extent to which they evaluate whether the financial report is prepared in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework, including whether the financial report includes adequate disclosures.

...

69. New paragraph A91 is inserted after paragraph A90 as follows:

The financial report may contain information that is obtained from outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers. Examples of such information may include:

- Information obtained from lease agreements disclosed in the financial report, such as renewal options or future lease payments.
- Information disclosed in the financial report that is produced by an entity's risk management system.
- Fair value information produced by management's experts and disclosed in the financial report.

- Information disclosed in the financial report that has been obtained from models, or from other calculations used to develop estimates recognised or disclosed in the financial report, including information relating to the underlying data and assumptions used in those models, such as:
 - Assumptions developed internally that may affect an asset's useful life; or
 - Data such as interest rates that are affected by factors outside the control of the entity.
 - Information disclosed in the financial report about sensitivity analyses derived from financial models that demonstrates that management has considered alternative assumptions.
 - Information recognised or disclosed in the financial report that has been obtained from an entity's tax returns and records.
 - Information disclosed in the financial report that has been obtained from analyses prepared to support management's assessment of the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, such as disclosures, if any, related to events or conditions that have been identified that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern.
70. The following footnote, referenced to paragraph 69 of this Auditing Standard (last bullet point) is inserted as follows:
- ² See paragraphs 19–20 of ASA 570.
71. As a result of the change made in paragraph 69 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.
72. New paragraph A92 is inserted after paragraph A91 as follows:
- The understanding of the information system relevant to financial reporting required by paragraph 18 of this Auditing Standard (including the understanding of relevant aspects of that system relating to information disclosed in the financial report that is obtained from within or outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers) is a matter of the auditor's professional judgement. For example, certain amounts or disclosures in the entity's financial report (such as disclosures about credit risk, liquidity risk, and market risk) may be based on information obtained from the entity's risk management system. However, the auditor is not required to understand all aspects of the risk management system, and uses professional judgement in determining the necessary understanding.
73. As a result of the change made in paragraph 72 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.
74. Paragraph A96 is amended to read as follows:
- The information system and related business processes relevant to financial reporting in small entities, including relevant aspects of that system relating to information disclosed in the financial report that is obtained from within or outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers, are likely to be less sophisticated than in larger entities, but ~~their~~ its role is just as significant. Small entities with active management involvement may not need extensive descriptions of accounting procedures, sophisticated accounting records, or written policies. Understanding the entity's information system relevant to financial reporting and processes may therefore be easier in an audit of smaller entities, and may be more dependent on enquiry than on review of documentation. The need to obtain an understanding, however, remains important.

75. New paragraph A103 is inserted after paragraph A102 as follows:

Control activities relevant to the audit may include controls established by management that address risks of material misstatement related to disclosures not being prepared in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework, in addition to controls that address risks related to account balances and transactions. Such control activities may relate to information included in the financial report that is obtained from outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers.

76. As a result of the change made in paragraph 75 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

77. Paragraph A123 is amended to read as follows:

Risks at the financial report level may derive in particular from a deficient control environment (although these risks may also relate to other factors, such as declining economic conditions). For example, deficiencies such as ~~management's~~ a lack of ~~management~~ competence ~~or lack of oversight over the preparation of the financial report~~ may have a more pervasive effect on the financial report and may require an overall response by the auditor.

78. Paragraph A127 is amended to read as follows:

In representing that the financial report is in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework, and other statutory reporting requirements, management implicitly or explicitly makes assertions regarding the recognition, measurement and presentation of classes of transactions and events, account balances and disclosures of the various elements of financial report and related disclosures.

79. Paragraph number not used

80. A new heading is inserted above paragraph A128 as follows:

Assertions about classes of transactions, account balances, and related disclosures

81. Paragraph A128 is amended to read as follows:

Assertions used by the auditor ~~to~~in considering the different types of potential misstatements that may occur may fall into the following ~~three~~ categories ~~and may take the following forms:~~

- (a) Assertions about classes of transactions and events, and related disclosures, for the period under audit:
 - (i) Occurrence—transactions and events that have been recorded or disclosed, have occurred, and such transactions and events pertain to the entity.
 - (ii) Completeness—all transactions and events that should have been recorded have been recorded, and all related disclosures that should have been included in the financial report have been included.
 - (iii) Accuracy—amounts and other data relating to recorded transactions and events have been recorded appropriately, and related disclosures have been appropriately measured and described.
 - ...
 - (vi) Presentation—transactions and events are appropriately aggregated or disaggregated and clearly described, and related disclosures are relevant and understandable in the context of the requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework.
- (b) Assertions about account balances, and related disclosures, at the period end:

- (iii) Completeness—all assets, liabilities and equity interests that should have been recorded have been recorded, and all related disclosures that should have been included in the financial report have been included.
- (iv) Accuracy, Valuation and allocation—financial and other information are disclosed fairly and at appropriate amounts assets, liabilities, and equity interests have been included in the financial report at appropriate amounts and any resulting valuation or allocation adjustments have been appropriately recorded, and related disclosures have been appropriately measured and described.
- (v) Classification—assets, liabilities and equity interests have been recorded in the proper accounts.
- (vi) Presentation— assets, liabilities and equity interests are appropriately aggregated or disaggregated and clearly described, and related disclosures are relevant and understandable in the context of the requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework.

~~(c) — Assertions about presentation and disclosure:~~

- ~~(i) — Occurrence and rights and obligations — disclosed events, transactions, and other matters have occurred and pertain to the entity.~~
- ~~(ii) — Completeness — all disclosures that should have been included in the financial report have been included.~~
- ~~(iii) — Classification and understandability — financial information is appropriately presented and described, and disclosures are clearly expressed.~~
- ~~(iv) — Accuracy and valuation — financial and other information are disclosed fairly and at appropriate amounts.~~

82. A new heading is inserted above paragraph A129 as follows:

Assertions about other disclosures

83. New paragraph A129 is inserted after paragraph A128 as follows:

The assertions described in paragraph A128(a)–(b) above, adapted as appropriate, may also be used by the auditor in considering the different types of potential misstatements that may occur in disclosures not directly related to recorded classes of transactions, events, or account balances. As an example of such a disclosure, the entity may be required to describe its exposure to risks arising from financial instruments, including how the risks arise; the objectives, policies and processes for managing the risks; and the methods used to measure the risks.

84. As a result of the change made in paragraph 83 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

85. Existing paragraph A125 is deleted.

86. Paragraph A131 is amended to read as follows:

... The risk assessment determines the nature, timing and extent of further audit procedures to be performed. In identifying the risks of material misstatement in the financial report, the auditor exercises professional scepticism in accordance with ASA 200.

87. The following footnote, referenced to paragraph 86 of this Auditing Standard is inserted as follows:

³ See ASA 200 Overall Objectives of the Independent Auditor and the Conduct of an Audit in Accordance with Australian Auditing Standards, paragraph 15.

88. Paragraph A132 is amended to read as follows:

Appendix 2 provides examples of conditions and events that may indicate the existence of risks of material misstatement, including risks of material misstatement relating to disclosures.

89. New Paragraph A133 is inserted after paragraph A132 as follows:

As explained in ASA 320, materiality and audit risk are considered when identifying and assessing the risks of material misstatement in classes of transactions, account balances and disclosures. The auditor's determination of materiality is a matter of professional judgement, and is affected by the auditor's perception of the financial reporting needs of users of the financial report.

90. The following footnotes, referenced to paragraph 89 of this Auditing Standard are inserted as follows:

² See ASA 320, paragraph 4.

91. As a result of the change made in paragraph 89 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

92. New paragraph A134 is inserted after paragraph A133 as follows:

The auditor's consideration of disclosures in the financial report when identifying risks includes quantitative and qualitative disclosures, the misstatement of which could be material (i.e., in general, misstatements are considered to be material if they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report as a whole). Depending on the circumstances of the entity and the engagement, examples of disclosures that will have qualitative aspects and that may be relevant when assessing the risks of material misstatement include disclosures about:

- Liquidity and debt covenants of an entity in financial distress.
- Events or circumstances that have led to the recognition of an impairment loss.
- Key sources of estimation uncertainty, including assumptions about the future.
- The nature of a change in accounting policy, and other relevant disclosures required by the applicable financial reporting framework, where, for example, new financial reporting requirements are expected to have a significant impact on the financial position and financial performance of the entity.
- Share-based payment arrangements, including information about how any amounts recognised were determined, and other relevant disclosures.
- Related parties, and related party transactions.
- Sensitivity analysis, including the effects of changes in assumptions used in the entity's valuation techniques intended to enable users to understand the underlying measurement uncertainty of a recorded or disclosed amount.

93. As a result of the change made in paragraph 92 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

94. A new heading is inserted above paragraph A135 as follows:

Considerations specific to smaller entities

95. New paragraph A135 is inserted after paragraph A134 as follows:

Disclosures in the financial report of smaller entities may be less detailed or less complex (e.g., some financial reporting frameworks allow smaller entities to provide fewer disclosures in the financial report). However, this does not relieve the auditor of the responsibility to obtain an understanding of the entity and its environment, including internal control, as it relates to disclosures.

96. As a result of the change made in paragraph 95 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

97. A new heading is inserted above paragraph A136 as follows:

Material Misstatements

98. New paragraph A136 is inserted after paragraph A135 as follows:

Potential misstatements in individual statements and disclosures may be judged to be material due to size, nature or circumstances. (Ref: Para. 26(d))

99. As a result of the change made in paragraph 98 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

100. Appendix 2 is amended to read as follows:

The following are examples of conditions and events that may indicate the existence of risks of material misstatement in the financial report. ...

- ...
- Deficiencies in internal control, especially those not addressed by management.
- Incentives for management and employees to engage in fraudulent financial reporting.
- ...
- Events or transactions that involve significant measurement uncertainty, including accounting estimates, and related disclosures.
- Omission, or obscuring, of significant information in disclosures.
- ...

Amendments to ASA 320

101. Paragraph 6 is amended to read as follows:

In planning the audit, the auditor makes judgements about ~~the size of~~ misstatements that will be considered material. These judgements provide a basis for:

... ~~Although it is not practicable to design audit procedures to detect all misstatements that could be material solely because of their nature,~~ However, consideration of the nature of potential misstatements in disclosures is relevant to the design of audit procedures to address risks of material misstatement. In addition, when evaluating the effect on the financial report of all uncorrected misstatements, the auditor considers not only the size but also the nature of uncorrected misstatements, and the particular circumstances of their occurrence, ~~when evaluating their effect on the financial report.~~ (Ref: Para. A2)

102. The following footnotes, referenced to paragraph 101 of this Auditing Standard are inserted as follows:

¹ See ASA 315 Identifying and Assessing the Risks of Material Misstatement through Understanding the Entity and its Environment, paragraphs A129-A130.

² See ASA 450, paragraph A16.

103. Paragraph Aus A1.1 and related footnote * are deleted.
104. A new heading is inserted after existing paragraph A1 as follows:

Materiality in the Context of an Audit (Ref: Para. 6)

105. New paragraph A2 is inserted after paragraph A1 as follows:

Identifying and assessing the risks of material misstatement involves the use of professional judgement to identify those classes of transactions, account balances and disclosures, including qualitative disclosures, the misstatement of which could be material (i.e., in general, misstatements are considered to be material if they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report as a whole). When considering whether misstatements in qualitative disclosures could be material, the auditor may identify relevant factors such as:

- The circumstances of the entity for the period (for example, the entity may have undertaken a significant business combination during the period).
- The applicable financial reporting framework, including changes therein (for example, a new financial reporting standard may require new qualitative disclosures that are significant to the entity).
- Qualitative disclosures that are important to users of the financial report because of the nature of an entity (for example, liquidity risk disclosures may be important to users of the financial report for a financial institution).

106. The following footnote, referenced to paragraph 105 of this Auditing Standard, is inserted as follows:

¹ See ASA 315, paragraph 25, requires the auditor to identify and assess the risk of material misstatement at the financial statement and assertion level.

107. As a result of the change made in paragraph 105 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

108. Paragraph A11 is amended to read as follows:

- Whether law, regulation or the applicable financial reporting framework affect users' expectations regarding the measurement or disclosure of certain items (for example, related party transactions, ~~and~~ the remuneration of management and those charged with governance, and sensitivity analysis for fair value accounting estimates with high estimation uncertainty).
- ...
- Whether attention is focused on a particular aspect of the entity's business that is separately disclosed in the financial report (for example, ~~a newly acquired business~~ disclosures about segments or a significant business combination).

109. Paragraph Aus A10.1 is deleted.

Amendments to ASA 330

110. Paragraph 20 is amended to read as follows:

- (a) Agreeing or reconciling information in the financial report with the underlying accounting records, including agreeing or reconciling information in disclosures, whether such information is obtained from within or outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers; and
- (b) ...

111. The existing heading directly above paragraph 24 is amended to read as follows:

Adequacy of Presentation and Disclosure of the Financial Report.

112. Paragraph Aus 21.1 is deleted as follows:

~~Timing of Substantive Procedures~~

~~Where the auditor plans to use audit evidence from the performance of substantive procedures in a prior audit, the auditor shall perform audit procedures during the current period to establish the continuing relevance of the audit evidence. (Ref: Para. A54)~~

113. Paragraph 24 is amended to read as follows:

The auditor shall perform audit procedures to evaluate whether the overall presentation of the financial report, ~~including the related disclosures~~, is in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework. In making this evaluation, the auditor shall consider whether the financial report is presented in a manner that reflects the appropriate:

- Classification and description of financial information and the underlying transactions, events and conditions; and
- Presentation, structure and content of the financial report. (Ref: Para. A59)

114. Paragraph 30 is amended to read as follows:

The auditor's documentation shall demonstrate that information in the financial report agrees or reconciles with the underlying accounting records, including agreeing or reconciling disclosures, whether such information is obtained from within or outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers.

115. Paragraph A13 is amended to read as follows:

In addition, certain audit procedures can be performed only at or after the period end, for example:

- Agreeing or reconciling information in the financial report with the underlying accounting records, including classes of transactions, account balances and agreeing or reconciling disclosures, with the underlying accounting records including, as applicable, those relevant accounting records that are whether such information is obtained from within or outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers;

116. Paragraph A14 is amended to read as follows:

Further relevant factors that influence the auditor's consideration of when to perform audit procedures include the following:

- The timing of the preparation of the financial report, particularly for those disclosures that provide further explanation about amounts recorded in the statement of financial position, the statement of comprehensive income, the statement of changes in equity or the statement of cash flows.

117. Paragraph A52 is amended to read as follows:

The nature, and also the extent, of the auditor's substantive procedures related to the financial statement closing process ~~examination of journal entries and other adjustments~~ depends on the nature and complexity of the entity's financial reporting process and the related risks of material misstatement.

118. The heading directly above paragraph A59 is amended to read as follows:

Adequacy of Presentation and Disclosure of the Financial Report (Ref: Para. 24)

119. Paragraph A59 is amended to read as follows:

Evaluating the ~~overall~~ appropriate presentation, arrangement and content of the financial report, ~~including the related disclosures, relates to whether the individual financial report is presented in a manner that reflects the appropriate classification and description of financial information, and the form, arrangement, and content of the financial report and their appended notes. This includes, for example, consideration of the terminology used as required by the applicable financial reporting framework, the amount level of detail given provided, classification of items in the statements, aggregation and disaggregation of amounts and the bases of amounts set forth.~~

Amendments to ASA 450

120. Paragraph 4 is amended to read as follows:

For purposes of the Australian Auditing Standards, the following terms have the meanings attributed below:

- (a) Misstatement – means a difference between the reported amount, classification, presentation, or disclosure of a ~~reported~~ financial report item and the amount, classification, presentation, or disclosure that is required for the item to be in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework. ...

121. Paragraph A1 is amended to read as follows:

Misstatements may result from:

- (b) An omission of an amount or disclosure, including inadequate or incomplete disclosures, and those disclosures required to meet disclosure objectives of certain financial reporting frameworks as applicable;
- (c) An incorrect accounting estimate arising from overlooking, or clear misinterpretation of, facts; ~~and~~
- (d) Judgements of management concerning accounting estimates that the auditor considers unreasonable or the selection and application of accounting policies that the auditor considers inappropriate.;
- (e) An inappropriate classification, aggregation or disaggregation, of information; and
- (f) For a financial report prepared in accordance with a fair presentation framework, the omission of a disclosure necessary for the financial report to achieve fair presentation beyond disclosures specifically required by the framework.

- ...
122. The following footnotes, referenced to paragraph 121 of this Auditing Standard, are inserted as follows:
- ^{1.} For example, AASB 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, paragraph 42H states that “an entity shall disclose any additional information that it considers necessary to meet the disclosure objectives in paragraph...”
- ^{2.} For example, Australian Accounting Standards require an entity to provide additional disclosures when compliance with the specific requirements in Australian Accounting Standards is insufficient to enable users to understand the impact of particular transactions, other events and conditions on the entity’s financial position and financial performance (See AASB 101, Presentation of Financial Statements, paragraph 17(c)).
123. Paragraph A2 is amended to read as follows:
- ~~The auditor may designate an amount below which misstatements would be clearly trivial and would not need to be accumulated because the auditor expects that the accumulation of such amounts clearly would not have a material effect on the financial report. Paragraph 5 of this Auditing Standard requires the auditor to accumulate misstatements identified during the audit other than those that are clearly trivial. “Clearly trivial” is not another expression for “not material.” Matters Misstatements that are clearly trivial will be of a wholly different (smaller) order of magnitude, or of a wholly different nature than those that would be determined to be material, than materiality determined in accordance with ASA 320, and will be matters that are clearly inconsequential, whether taken individually or in aggregate and whether judged by any criteria of size, nature or circumstances. When there is any uncertainty about whether one or more items are clearly trivial, the matter misstatement is considered not to be clearly trivial.~~
124. A new heading is inserted above paragraph A3 as follows:
- Misstatements in Individual Statements
125. New paragraph A3 is inserted as follows:
- The auditor may designate an amount below which misstatements of amounts in the individual statements would be clearly trivial, and would not need to be accumulated because the auditor expects that the accumulation of such amounts clearly would not have a material effect on the financial report. However, misstatements of amounts that are above the designated amount are accumulated as required by paragraph 5 of this Auditing Standard. In addition, misstatements relating to amounts may not be clearly trivial when judged on criteria of nature or circumstances, and, if not, are accumulated as required by paragraph 5 of this Auditing Standard.
126. As a result of the change made in paragraph 125 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.
127. A new heading is inserted above paragraph A4 as follows:
- Misstatements in Disclosures
128. New paragraph A4 is inserted as follows:
- Misstatements in disclosures may also be clearly trivial whether taken individually or in aggregate, and whether judged by any criteria of size, nature or circumstances. Misstatements in disclosures that are not clearly trivial are also accumulated to assist the auditor in evaluating the effect of such misstatements on the relevant disclosures and the financial report as a whole.

Paragraph A14 of this Auditing Standard provides examples of where misstatements in qualitative disclosures may be material.

129. As a result of the change made in paragraph 128 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

130. A new heading is inserted above paragraph A5 as follows:

Accumulation of Misstatements

131. New paragraph A5 is inserted after new paragraph A4 as follows:

Misstatements by nature or circumstances, accumulated as described in paragraphs A3-A4, cannot be added together as is possible in the case of misstatements of amounts. Nevertheless, the auditor is required by paragraph 11 of this Auditing Standard to evaluate those misstatements individually and in aggregate (i.e., collectively with other misstatements) to determine whether they are material.

132. As a result of the change made in paragraph 131 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.

133. Paragraph A6 is amended to read as follows:

- Judgemental misstatements are differences arising from the judgements of management including those concerning recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure in the financial report (including accounting estimates that the auditor considers unreasonable, or the selection or application of accounting policies) that the auditor considers unreasonable or inappropriate.

134. ~~Existing~~ Paragraph A10 is amended to read as follows:

Timely communication of misstatements to the appropriate level of management is important as it enables management to evaluate whether the ~~items~~ classes of transactions, account balances and disclosures are misstated~~ments~~, inform the auditor if it disagrees, and take action as necessary. Ordinarily, the appropriate level of management is the one that has responsibility and authority to evaluate the misstatements and to take the necessary action.

135. Existing paragraph A16 is amended to read as follows:

Each individual misstatement of an amount is considered to evaluate its effect on the relevant classes of transactions, account balances or disclosures, including whether the materiality level for that particular class of transactions, account balance or disclosure, if any, has been exceeded.

136. New paragraph A17 is inserted after paragraph A16 as follows:

In addition, each individual misstatement of a qualitative disclosure is considered to evaluate its effect on the relevant disclosure(s), as well as its overall effect on the financial report as a whole. The determination of whether a misstatement(s) in a qualitative disclosure is material, in the context of the applicable financial reporting framework and the specific circumstances of the entity, is a matter that involves the exercise of professional judgement. Examples where such misstatements may be material include:

- Inaccurate or incomplete descriptions of information about the objectives, policies and processes for managing capital for entities with insurance and banking activities.

- The omission of information about the events or circumstances that have led to an impairment loss (e.g., a significant long-term decline in the demand for a metal or commodity) in an entity with mining operations.
 - The incorrect description of an accounting policy relating to a significant item in the statement of financial position, the statement of comprehensive income, the statement of changes in equity or the statement of cash flows.
 - The inadequate description of the sensitivity of an exchange rate in an entity that undertakes International trading activities.
137. As a result of the change made in paragraph 136 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.
138. New paragraph A18 is inserted after new paragraph A17 as follows:
- In determining whether uncorrected misstatements by nature are material as required by paragraph 11 of this Auditing Standard, the auditor considers uncorrected misstatements in amounts and disclosures. Such misstatements may be considered material either individually, or when taken in combination with other misstatements. For example, depending on the misstatements identified in disclosures, the auditor may consider whether:
- (a) Identified errors are persistent or pervasive; or
 - (b) A number of identified misstatements are relevant to the same matter, and considered collectively may affect the users' understanding of that matter.
- This consideration of accumulated misstatements is also helpful when evaluating the financial report in accordance with paragraph 13(d) of ASA 700, which requires the auditor to consider whether the overall presentation of the financial report has been undermined by including information that is not relevant or that obscures a proper understanding of the matters disclosed.
139. The following footnote, referenced to paragraph 138 of this Auditing Standard, is inserted as follows:
- ^{1.} See ASA 700 Forming an Opinion and Reporting on a Financial Report.
140. As a result of the change made in paragraph 138 of this Auditing Standard, subsequent paragraph references are re-numbered and references to these paragraphs are updated accordingly.
141. ~~Existing~~ Paragraph A20 is amended to read as follows:
- ... Depending on the circumstances, misstatements in disclosures could also be indicative of fraud, and, for example, may arise from:
- Misleading disclosures that have resulted from bias in management's judgements; or
 - Extensive duplicative or uninformative disclosures that are intended to obscure a proper understanding of matters in the financial report.
- When considering the implications of misstatements in classes of transactions, account balances and disclosures, the auditor exercises professional scepticism in accordance with ASA 200.
142. The following footnote, referenced to paragraph 141 of this Auditing Standard, is inserted as follows:
- ^{1.} See ASA 200, paragraph 15.
143. Paragraph Aus A1.1 is deleted.

144. Footnote*, referenced to Paragraph Aus A1.1 amendment listed at 143. above, is deleted.

145. Paragraph A21 is amended to read as follows:

...

- ~~Affects other information that will be communicated to be included in the entity's annual report documents containing the audited financial report~~ (for example, information to be included in a "Management Discussion and Analysis" or an "Operating and Financial Review") that may reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of the users of the financial report. ASA 720 deals with the auditor's responsibilities relating to consideration of other information on which the auditor has no obligation to report in documents containing audited financial report.

146. The following footnote, referenced to Paragraph A21 amendment listed at 145. above, is amended as footnote 63:

- ⁶³ See ASA 720 The Auditor's Responsibilities Relating to Other Information in Documents Containing an Audited Financial Report.

Amendments to ASA 500

147. Paragraph 5(c) is amended to read as follows:

Audit evidence – means information used by the auditor in arriving at the conclusions on which the auditor's opinion is based. Audit evidence includes both information contained in the accounting records underlying the financial report and ~~other~~ information obtained from other sources.

Amendments to ASA 510

148. Paragraph A8(b) is amended to read as follows:

149. Appendix 1 is amended to read as follows:

Responsibilities of Management¹⁰s and Those Charged with Governance Responsibility for the Financial Report¹¹

[Reporting in accordance with ASA 700 – see [Aus] Illustration 1A in the Appendix of ASA 700.]

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

[Reporting in accordance with ASA 700 – see [Aus] Illustration 1A in the Appendix of ASA 700.]

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Entity's preparation and fair presentation¹² of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Entity's internal control.¹³ An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

¹³ In circumstances when the auditor also has responsibility to express an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control in conjunction with the audit of the financial report, this sentence would be worded as follows: "In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances." Responsibilities of Management³⁹s and Those Charged with Governance Responsibility for the Financial Report

[Reporting in accordance with ASA 700 – see Illustration 3 in the Appendix of ASA 700.]

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards,⁴⁰ and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

[Reporting in accordance with ASA 700 – see Illustration 3 in the Appendix of ASA 700.]

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Entity's preparation and fair presentation⁴¹ of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Entity's internal control.⁴² An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

⁴¹ In the case of footnote 4, this may read: "In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control."

Responsibilities of Management⁶²s and Those Charged with Governance Responsibility for the Financial Report

[Reporting in accordance with ASA 700 – see Illustration 3 in the Appendix of ASA 700.]

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards,⁶³ and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

[Reporting in accordance with ASA 700 – see Illustration 3 in the Appendix of ASA 700.]

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Entity’s preparation and fair presentation⁶⁴ of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Entity’s internal control.⁶⁵ An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

⁶² Or other term that is appropriate in the context of the legal framework in the particular jurisdiction.

⁶³ Where management’s responsibility is to prepare a financial report that gives a true and fair view, this may read: “Management is responsible for the preparation of a financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, and for such ...”

⁶⁵ In circumstances when the auditor also has responsibility to express an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control in conjunction with the audit of the financial report, this sentence would be worded as follows: “In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances.” In the case of footnote 4, this may read: “In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation of a financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances.”
